The Invention of Lying

Tuesday, March 9, 2010

This comedy is set in a world where no one has ever lied and even the concept of lying does not exist. When a down on his luck loser named Mark suddenly develops the ability to lie, he finds that dishonesty has its rewards and he soon fakes his way to fame and fortune. But as the tall tales spin out of control, he finds the one thing he can't lie his way into, the heart of the woman he loves. Starring Jennifer Garner and Ricky Gervais.

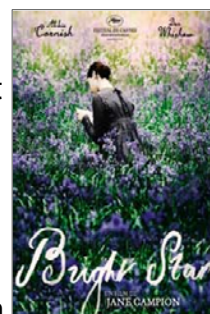

(Rated PG-13, 100 minutes, 2009)

Bright Star

Tuesday, April 13, 2010

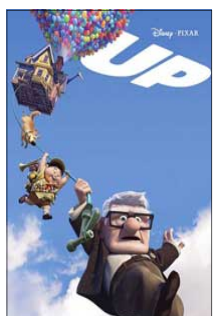

From Academy Award winning director, Jane Campion comes an extraordinary movie based on the three-year relationship between English poet John Keats and his spirited muse Fanny Brawne. The movie takes you to the wilds of 18th century England where, though life may be fleeting, great art and great love last forever. Nominated for a 2010 Oscar for best costume design. Starring Ben Whishaw and Abbie Cornish.

(Rated PG, 119 minutes, 2010)

Up

Tuesday, May 11, 2010

Carl Fredricksen spent his entire life dreaming of exploring the globe and now in his 78th year he launches his house into the sky via thousands of balloons. Right after liftoff he discovers he has a stowaway in the form of an over optimistic 8-year-old Wilderness Explorer named Russell. This animated feature takes you into a lost world with the least likely duo on Earth. Nominated for 5 Oscars.

(Rated PG, 96 minutes, 2009)

Up In The Air

Tuesday, June 8, 2010

Ryan Bingham is a corporate downsizing expert whose cherished life on the road is threatened just as he is on the cusp of reaching ten million frequent flyer miles. Leading an empty life lived out of a suitcase he thinks he may have finally met the frequent-traveler woman of his dreams in this quirky comedy. Nominated for 6 Oscars. Starring George Clooney, Vera Farmiga and Jason Bateman.

(Rated R, 109 minutes, 2009)
