Duplicity

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

The NY Post calls this film a "whip-smart, sexy and delightfully twisty romantic thriller". Starring Academy Award winner Julia Roberts and Clive Owen as two spies-turned-corporate operatives who attempt to pull off one of the biggest heists ever. As the stakes rise in the ultimate game of cat-and-mouse, they'll put everything on the line to remain one double-cross ahead of the rest.

(Rated PG-13, 125 minutes, 2009)

State Of Play

Tuesday, November 10, 2009

Handsome, unflappable U.S. congressman Stephen Collins is the future of his political party. That is until his research assistant is brutally murdered and buried secrets come tumbling out. A DC reporter investigating the case steps into a cover-up that threatens to shake the nation's structures. Starring Russell Crowe, Ben Affleck and Rachel McAdams.

(Rated PG-13, 118 minutes, 2009)

Goodbye Solo

Tuesday, December 8, 2009

Solo is a Senegalese cab driver working to provide a better life for his young family. William is a tough Southern good ol' boy with a lifetime of regrets. Despite their differences, both men soon realize they need each other more than either is willing to admit. From acclaimed director Ramin Bahrani comes a powerful story of friendship that earned rave reviews and won the International Critics Prize at the Venice Film Festival.

(Rated R, 91 minutes, 2009)

Julie and Julia

Tuesday, January 12, 2010

A woman verging on thirty and frustrated in a temporary job takes on a year long culinary quest: cook all 524 recipes in Julia Child's "Mastering the Art of French Cooking." She chronicles her trials and tribulations in a blog that catches on with the food crowd. This film follows both women who, while separated by time and space, discover that with the right combination of passion, fearlessness and butter, anything is possible. Meryl Streep and Amy Adams.

(Rated PG-13, 123 minutes, 2009)
